How much do I have to pay for a website?

To those accepted into the program, websites will be paid for by the Alexandria SBDC and will be hosted by W3 Consulting for one year. After one year, you will be responsible for the cost associated with the hosting of your website, approximately $300 per year.

Will my website be able to accept payment?

If your website needs to be able to accept payments, let us know in the initial consultation and we can work to integrate an invoicing or payment tool into the website.

Will my website be able to include ecommerce?

If ecommerce is a vital part of your business, make note of that in your application. If selected, your website will include ecommerce.

Will my website be able to include an online scheduling feature?

If you require your website to schedule with clients, we recommend that you license Calendly (or another similar online tool) at your cost. We will integrate it into the site.

What are the educational sessions?

We will offer instructional Zoom sessions, share best practices, and host a “new website” cohort session to answer any questions regarding operating a successful business website. The business owner or point of contact is required to attend at least one “new website” cohort session.

Why is the Alexandria SBDC offering websites services?

A website is crucial for small businesses to make a great first impression and give people comfort knowing they are real. It provides small businesses legitimacy, referrals, and connections to potential and existing customers. An online presence is vital, and the lack of one can prove unfavorable to a business.
